PETTIS COUNTY LEADER

OF ALL THE COUNTIES IN THE
STATE IN POULTRY
INDUSTRY.

MARKETED 8,696,520 DOZEN EGGS

In Dressed Chickens, Turkeys, Etc.,
the Figures Are Something Wonderful—Surplus Commodities Shipped Out.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 31.—Pettis county is in the lead in the poultry industry, in so far as the state
labor bureau has received reports from the surplus products of the counties of the state for last year.

Pettis marketed 8,696,520 dozens of eggs and nearly 12,000,000 pounds
of poultry. It received from this resource alone $2,637,476. It also is one of the biggest stock growing counties of the state, and reaped a harvest therefrom of $2,201,387. Its dairy products brought in $266,160. Altogether the county has a surplus to its credit of $6,246,592.

HE WANTS HUGHES AGAIN

CHAIRMAN HITCHCOCK FAVORS
RENOMINATION OF NEW YORK GOVERNOR.

IS VERY STRONG IN THE WEST

Thinks That His Selection Would Strengthen the National Ticket
in Other Sections Besides New York.

New York, July 31.—New York
state republican leaders today sought to present to Chairman Hitchcock
their personal views as to the cooperation they expect between the national officials and the state managers during the coming campaign.
While Hitchcock declined to define
his wishes concerning the question of the renomination of Governor
Hughes, his visitors gained the impression that he expects the state convention to name the present governor as a candidate for another term.

The sentiment for Hughes is strong in the west and his nomination would strengthen the ticket in other sections of the country as well as in
New York in his behalf.

THE COLLARD WILL CONTEST

Common Law Wife Wants Share of the Estate.

Acting Judge E. W. Hinton, of Columbia, presided in the circuit court
today in the absence of Judge Martin,
who was called away, says Thursday's Jefferson City Democrat. The most important case was that of Annie C.
Collard vs. Nelson C. Burch, administrator of the late J. D. Collard, of Columbia, Missouri Pacific conductor, who died
here suddenly last March at the Jefferson hotel.

Annie C. Collard is suing for a share of the estate on the ground that she was the deceased's wife.

She does not say whether she claims marriage by common law or as his legal spouse, but evidence was introduced to show a common-law marriage.

The estate is valued at $3,000 and
the deceased left a will giving it all,
share and share alike, to his three children.

The petitioner claims that as his wife she is entitled to a part of the estate. The case is being tried before Judge Hinton without a jury.

SALOONS CLOSE TUESDAY

If You Want a "Smile," Must Lay It
in Monday Night.

Next Tuesday in Sedalia and other cities of Missouri will be as dry as Sunday. The state law provides that saloons must be closed on the day of a primary election of any party which received 20 per cent of the total vote
cast at the last election.

As the primary next Tuesday is a general one, in which all parties participate there is no question that the saloons will have to close throughout the day.

As this is the provision of a general state law Mayor Babcock will not have to issue a closing order. The fact that the lid must be screwed down during the primary did not come to the attention of the authorities until a day or two ago.

Burial of David McGee.

The funeral of David McGee, who committed suicide at the home of his wife, 900 East Fourteenth street,
618 yesterday, was held from Flat Creek 340 church today, burial being made in that locality.

WORKING THE SAME OLD TRICK

A GOOD CROWD AT PICNIC

THAT GIVEN BY MANILA CAMP,
MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA.

SPEECHES BY SEVERAL SEDALIANS

The Camp Branch Band Furnished the Music and Won Many Compliments—Everybody Had a Royal Good Time.

The picnic given Thursday by Manila camp, Modern Woodmen of America, in Leischel's grove, on Flat creek, twelve miles to the southwest, was one of the most successful of any formerly held.

It was the third annual outing, and
the attendance, notwithstanding the busy season, was much larger than usual, showing the increased interest
in the order in that community.

The committees had made every necessary arrangement for the enjoyment of all who attended, and each member of the camp took especial
pains to see that each person present was made to feel at home. It was a basket picnic, and an eighty-foot table
had been erected in the shade of the mammoth black walnut trees. The table was spread with a fine dinner,
and all were invited to partake to their fill.

The Camp Branch band rendered fine music throughout the day, and the boys received the congratulations
of all for their great improvement
since playing in the same grounds
one year ago. It is a fine musical organization, and no doubt will add greatly to the campaign meetings
throughout the county this fall.

At 2 o'clock Mr. J. W. Leischel
quieted the crowd and announced that several short speeches would be made. Mr. C. C. Lawson was first introduced and spoke for fifteen minutes. He was followed by Mr. M. V.
Carroll, who in turn was followed by George Anamosa. The three speakers are members of the Modern Woodmen organization, and their talks were on the line of Woodcraft and fraternalism. They had the undivided attention of all.

Mr. E. E. Johnston was the next speaker, and for thirty minutes made
an interesting talk, reviewing in brief
his work in the past two legislatures.
Rev. G. H. Ayres gave a short but amusing talk, to the delight of the ladies and little folks. Prosecuting Attorney Dow was the last speaker,
and he spoke more at length and had
the attention of all.

While it was an extremely hot day,
the shady grove was cool and all had a most enjoyable day, with thanks to Manila camp.

A Boy Lost in the Weeds.

Jerry Green, who is alleged to be a truthful man, informs the Democrat-

Sentinel that the weeds on Harrison avenue, between Tenth and Twelfth streets, are as high as his shoulder,
and he declares that he found a lost
boy in the "forest" early yesterday morning, he having been attracted to the child by its cries. If any person doubts the truth of the above statement, Mr. Green refers them to either Julius Kolbohn or Bob Cunningham, who have known him for years and
can testify to his reputation for truth
and veracity.

MR. DOLAN IN THE CITY

Was Former Master Mechanic for
the Missouri Pacific.

S. M. Dolan, formerly master mechanic at the new Missouri Pacific shops, who resigned to accept a traveling position with the Scullin-Gallagher Iron & Steel Co., of St. Louis, arrived here on M. & T. train No.
3 this morning for a day's visit.

Mr. Dolan came here to accompany William Bawden, general master mechanic of the Terminal Railroad association of St. Louis, and J. J.
O'Brien, supervisor of the car department, through the Missouri Pacific shops. The trio will return to St. Louis tonight.

Since retiring from the railroad service, Mr. Dolan has been tendered several excellent positions in railroad
work, but he has declined all of them.

A rumor is heard in railroad circles
that the Missouri Pacific is contemplating securing the contract for doing all repair work for the Terminal
Railroad association, of St. Louis, and the purpose of the gentlemen
here today is to look over the company's shops to learn what facilities
they have for doing the work.

ROBBED A DEPOT

Escaped With $700 After Blowing Up
the Safe.

Chillicothe, Mo., July 31.—The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul freight house here was wrecked last night by robbers who blew open the safe.
They secured $700 and escaped.

Death of Mrs. Maggie Sweeney.

Mrs. Maggie Sweeney, wife of David Sweeney, a Clinton City farmer, died this morning, aged about 35
years. Four children survive, besides the husband. Rev. Fr. Stoltz will conduct funeral services with requiem mass at Sacred Heart church at 9 a.
m. tomorrow and burial will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

Cases Were Dismissed.

The cases of Ada Taylor and May Bloch, charged with frequenting disorderly houses, were dismissed by Judge Learning today, at the request of Prosecuting Attorney Dow, on the advice of the prosecuting witnesses,
who contended they did not have sufficient evidence to make a case.

HE STOLE LEPROUS WIFE

HERO OF TWO WARS TAKES HER
TO A SECLUDED SPOT
IN MEXICO.

WILL SPEND THEIR LIVES THERE

Under the Cover of Night They Flee
From Hospital in Los Angeles,
Leaving Only a Note to Tell the Story.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 31.—Knowing that his wife was suffering with leprosy, Brigadier General David K.
Wardell, retired hero of two wars,
secretly and in the night took his wife
from the contagious ward in the county hospital, and has secluded the woman in Mexico, where he will make his home with her.

Three nights ago Mrs. Wardell, once a beautiful woman, was received
into the contagious ward in the county hospital. The next morning an opened window and note told the story of the woman's flight.

"We will not be molested in Mexico—it was there where we were married, and we will be allowed to die there together."

They boarded a late train for Mexico. The tender devotion of the soldier to his wife, when she daily reminded him of the dread disease, is well known among his friends.

HULL THE WINNER IN IOWA

Hawkeye Executive Council Decided
for the "Stand Pat" Man.

Des Moines, Ia., July 31.—Late last afternoon the executive council of the state issued a certificate of nomination for Representative J. A. T. Hull.
This makes him the republican nominee, and is the last official step in his nomination.

His name will appear in the regular republican column on the official ballot in the fall election.

GOVERNOR IN SANITARIUM

Chief Executive of Arkansas Taken to Missouri Institution.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 31.—Gov. John
S. Little, of Arkansas, has been placed in a sanitarium in this city. He has been suffering from nervous breakdown since the day of his inauguration, which has developed into acute melancholia. His condition is reported as very discouraging.

Having a Delightful Visit.

The Democrat-Sentinel is in receipt of a postal card from Manitou,
Colo., showing little Mazie Ramsey,
daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ramsey, and her pet burro, "Merry Widow," coupled with the following from Mazie:

"I ride the burros all the time.
Would like to take one home with me.
I play with the little fellow and feed him sugar. I am coming home soon
to see my beau."

Wants War-ant for Gamblers.

A well known professional man,
who was a strong "dry" advocate in the recent local option campaign, was in conference with County Attorney Dow today with a view to having warrants issued for certain parties who are alleged to be conducting a gambling resort in Sedalia. There may be something doing within the next few days, and possibly earlier.

RUINED BY HIGH LIVING

ASSISTANT CASHIER AT SEAT-TLE CONFESSES $46,330
SHORTAGE.

HE JUGGLED DORMANT ACCOUNTS

Taken in Custody When He Returned
From a Vacation—The Bank He Worked for Is Protected
By Insurance.

Seattle, July 31.—R. F. Parkhurst, assistant cashier of the First National bank of this city, was arrested yesterday and when confronted with an apparent discrepancy in his accounts, confessed to a shortage of $46,330.

Parkhurst had been on a vacation,
and was arrested just as he was returning to the bank. He said that he had been expecting to be arrested,
and has made no effort to secure bail.

Parkhurst covered his shortage, it is said, by operating dormant accounts, transferring amounts from one to another, as the occasion demanded. The bank is protected by a surety bond.

Parkhurst is married, and an expensive style of living is said to have been the cause of his downfall.

ENJOY A "FOREST DINING"

Young People Going to the Sneed
Farm This Evening.

The following will drive to the Sneed farm, east of the city, this evening, carrying with them their lunches, and will enjoy a "forest dining" in the woods in the vicinity of the Sneed residence:

Misses Georgia Sturges, Florence
Poteet, Agnes Farley, Nell Hayman, Emison Wood, Margaret Thompson,
of St. Louis; Gem Binkley, of Sweet Springs; Florence Shultz Genevieve
Waddell, Margaret Sneed; Messrs.
Will Curran, Gould Sturges, George
Ware, Dell Shields, Fred Hughes,
Harry Scott, Harry Meuschke, Ernest Demuth, R. M. Garrett.

The Negro Knights of Pythias.

The colored Knights of Pythias convention will adjourn tonight, after a four days' session at the court house.

Today's session was devoted principally to routine business and a resolution was adopted whereby the grand lodge pays $100 towards the burial of each member of subordinate lodges.

During the convention new laws
have been adopted and a revision of the constitution made. The election of officers and the selection of the next place of meeting will come up late this afternoon.

Mrs. Cashman Is Improving.

Mrs. Deborah Cashman, wife of Patrick Cashman, of Houstonia, and mother of Attorney John Cashman, of the Missouri Pacific railway at St.
Louis, has been steadily improving since being brought to this city for treatment.

She is at the home of Mrs. Al Baumgartner, on West Tenth street, and is under the care of Dr. E. D. Holbert, who expects to be able to place the patient on her feet after a course
of treatment.

Party at Country Club.

Saturday night there will be a dance at the club house of the Sedalia Country club, to which all members and their out-of-town guests are invited. There will be dancing.

At 5 p. m. Saturday the regular ladies' putting contest will take place.
The prize will be a golf ball.

GOMPERS SAYS IT'S A LIE

DENIES AGREEING TO OR NOT TO DELIVER LABOR VOTE
TO ANYBODY.

HE EXPECTED SOME TO DISAGREE

Wants No Political Office or Honor,
but Will Do What He Deems Right in Behalf of Organized Labor.

Washington, July 31.—"The report that I have ever said that I would or would not deliver the labor vote
to any political party is an infamous lie," said Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, yesterday.

"I fully expected when I took the stand which I have," said Mr. Gompers, "that some would disagree with me. I don't expect the labor
world to accept my conclusion in every instance."

"I want no political office or honor.
I have nothing for sale and don't propose to begin at this late day by selling my honor."

"My editorial in the American Federationist plainly and forcibly sets forth my position. He who runs may read and understand. Those who have taken issue with the position
therein set forth, are political renegades, and discredited outcasts of labor. I do not mean that those who differ with my opinion are such, but those who have denounced me and claim that I have not set forth the facts as they are."

Frank H. Hitchcock, when asked as to the truth of the report that a personal campaign was to be waged against Mr. Gompers, replied:
"Nothing of the kind has been arranged."

ONLY ONE CHEAP EXCURSION

The Wabash Railway Will Not Run
One This Year.

Up to date the Clover Leaf railway
is the only road that has announced
its intention of operating a cheap rate
excursion from St. Louis to Niagara Falls this year.

A Wabash railway official, recently
in this city, is authority for the statement that his road will not operate
such an excursion this year, as was done last, on account of the serious
demoralization of freight traffic resulting from the excursions.

Last year the Wabash railway carried hundreds and hundreds of people to Niagara Falls, necessitating
the operating of more than half a dozen passenger trains.

As a result freight trains had to be sidetracked for hours at a time, and the result was a congestion of freight business that required three weeks to untangle.

GAS PIPE THUGS HANG

They Created a Reign of Terror Following Frisco Earthquake.

San Quentin, Cal., July 31.—John Seilmann and Louis Dabner, known as the "gas pipe thugs," who committed a series of daring crimes in San Francisco following the earthquake, were executed in the penitentiary here today.

Wed by Rev. Campbell.

Artie Glenn Jones, of Kansas City,
and Miss Maggie M. Lynn, minor daughter of J. G. Lynn, were married by Rev. F. Y. Campbell, pastor of the First Baptist church, this morning.

Injured Engineer Is Dead.

Topeka, Kas., July 31.—Engineer Fred Frey, of Arkansas City, who was injured in the Santa Fe wreck at Perry, Okla., July 28, died at the Santa Fe hospital here last night.

A Social in the Country.

An ice cream social was given at the home of Mrs. E. B. Read, three miles southwest of the city, last night, by the Ladies' Aid society of Quisenberry's Sunday school union.

Circus Car Is Here.

Advertising car No. 2, of Hagenbeck & Wallace's circus, is in the city standing on a Missouri Pacific
side track near the Ohio avenue
crossing.

WHO PAYS THE BILL?

Who pays the bill for high protection enjoyed by manufacturers and trusts of this country, many of whom are selling their products abroad cheaper than at home? Does the foreigner pay for the privilege of climbing over our tariff wall with some of his wares? Or does the American consumer, who represents upwards
of 80,000,000 of population, foot the charge?

Ex-Gov. Douglas, of Massachusetts,
one of the largest manufacturers of footwear in the world, answers the question in his discussion of the tarriff which he recently gave to the public. He shows that shoe manufacturers pay a duty on practically all of the raw material they import, including
hides, leather, thread and machinery.
What they import they are compelled to buy abroad, either because they cannot secure the same article of quality in this country or because it is not produced in sufficient quantity.

Mr. Douglas says that nine-tenths of this tariff tax on footwear is collected from persons in the United States who wear shoes. It increases on the average the cost of every pair
of shoes sold in this country 10 cents.
The total of this tax collected from American shoe wearers to pay the duties on imported materials, Mr.
Douglas tells us, is $30,000,000 annually.

You and every other person in the country pay a portion of this $30, 000,000 tax to give protection to the leather combi, hide corporations,
thread trust and steel monopoly
which not one of them needs, at least in the amount given or for the holding of shoe manufacturing markets.
If you have a wife and five children
and an average of two pairs of shoes
is purchased for each year, you pay

exactly $1.40 annually as a tax to support this unnecessary protection.
Here, then, is one item of $30,000, 000 on shoes alone of the tax we are levying on consumers to create prosperity for manufacturers. If the shoe item is $30,000,000, what must be the total amount paid by our upwards of 80,000,000 consumers on all protected
articles in the endeavor to tax ourselves into prosperity? And this tax,
Mr. Workingman and Mr. Purchaser, is constantly collected from you in the excessive high prices charged for
the necessities and comforts of living.
Mr. Douglas says that free importation of raw materials for shoe factories would boost the exportation of shoes from $8,000,000, their present
value, to $100,000,000 worth of footwear a year. Wouldn't this be likely to promote industrial prosperity?
And without a penny of taxation,
either, Canada and other countries
have vast storehouses of raw materials we need for our manufactures.
But they are kept out altogether or brought in in limited quantities because of the billions of taxes collected from consumers under the false
and exploded theory of protection to our industrial 'infants' like the steel and sugar trusts. That there are any number of manufacturers in the United States who would profit by a reduction of the tariff, is shown by the fact that they are building branch factories in Canada to evade the tariff.

Mr. Douglas is a manufacturer who has the courage to expose the tariff
graft. He is one of Congressman Fordney, of Michigan's "white blackbirds." But will Congressman Fordney answer his argument? Well, we guess not.

Taft's Speech of Acceptance.

Mr. Taft's heavyweight speech of acceptance is inspired by two controlling motives. One is to make all the political capital possible out of Theodore Roosevelt, and the other is to apologize for the defects and omissions of the republican platform. He says, in effect: "Behold what Roosevelt has done; it is what I would have done in his place. Behold, further, what Roosevelt would have done had the party left him; it is what I will do, if I am elected."

"Roosevelt" is in and between the lines of every sentence of the acceptance address. The writer appears to be laboring under the firm conviction that the presidential majority of 1904 is large enough to cover four years and carry the next friend into the White House when the principal's term expires. One is impressed by the feeling of Rooseveltian responsibility, direct or remote, for every utterance pronounced by the candidate.
This is, of course, natural, inasmuch as the creation of the president for the succession is not the voluntary romance of the party. It is a case, with the secretary of war, of rendering unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's. In fact, the address in length and method of treatment is so strikingly like the presidential messages of the last six years that,
barring its direct appeal for election
support, it might be mistaken for one.

Mr. Taft's statement that Roosevelt received the support of his party
in the reforms he has undertaken is,
as everybody knows, contrary to the facts. The president has not even had the sympathy of his party, as
that party is represented in congress.
Mr. Taft's assurance that the matters taken up by Mr. Roosevelt which remain to be completed, will be finished by him, if elected, is, to say the least, taking a good deal for granted. A decided change in the complexion of congress, which is altogether unlikely in the event of republican success, would be necessary
to create even the possibility of fulfilling that promise.

The candidate acknowledges the weakness of the party platform, not only by verbosity of discussion, but particularly in the discussion of those planks which the Chicago convention refused to adopt, including
publicity of campaign contributions,
direct election of United States senators and valuation of railroads. His attempt to show that his party favors these things, that they are not political questions and that they are indirectly covered by other portions of the platform, is a weak defense
of that gathering in Chicago, which renounced numerous reforms advocated by the president, and selected as Taft's running mate a reactionary of the most extreme type.

In brief, the nominee's position is that of trying to harmonize Roosevelt with the republican party, and to make out a prima facie case of fusion
at Chicago—a task quite too hercule-
an even for a man of Taft's avowed pois.

Petersburg, Va., July 31.—John Ashby Mullen, a prominent citizen of Petersburg, late yesterday killed Elijah L. Cole, an unmarried man, whom he caught in the bedroom of his wife. Cole's head was crushed to a jelly by repeated blows with an ax.

Mullen, who is locked up, and his wife, who only escaped the same fate
as Cole by fleeing from her enraged husband, both made statements last night. There is considerable difference between the two versions of the tragedy.

It is probable the defendant will plead the unwritten lay as his extenuation of the crime. Mrs. Mullen maintains that there was nothing
wrong in her relations with Cole.

The husband went to his home in the afternoon, and peeping through the slats of the blinds in his wife's room, saw her and Cole together.

Mrs. Mullen prior to her marriage was Miss Annie Belcher.

THE ELECTIONS IN CUBA

FEELING OF UNEASINESS PERVADES WAR DEPARTMENT AT PRESENT.

POSSIBILITIES OF INSURRECTION

Battle of the Ballots Will Combine Provincial and Municipal Elections, Each Naming Governor and Councilmen.

Washington, July 31.—On the eve of the Cuban provincial and municipal elections, a feeling of uneasiness pervades the war department, although every effort has been made to conceal it. It is known that Secretary of War Wright has had several conferences with his predecessor, Judge Taft, on the possibilities of an insurrection in Cuba.

Reports from Havana state that while at present there is no indication of a revolution, everyone considers there will be trouble after the elections, possibly after the municipal elections tomorrow, but more likely after the presidential elections. The Mignolists have openly said, although not recently, that if Zavas is elected they will rebel. A conservative victory through the splitting of the liberal vote will certainly cause the liberals to fight.

Tomorrow's battle of ballots in Cuba will combine provincial and municipal elections, each province electing a governor and eight councilmen, and the municipalities electing an alcalde and a proportionate number of councilmen. The governors will hold office until February 24, 1913, and the mayors until August 1, 1912.

Governor Magoon has decided not to sign the decree authorizing the construction of water works at Cienfuegos until next week. This has averted a critical situation in that city, where the people are bitterly divided on the waterworks question. This action, it is thought, will prevent a clash between the rival factions, respectively and supporting the Reilly contract.

According to present plans, the Cuban army of occupation is to be withdrawn on February 1 next, but many Washington officials acquainted with the situation believe that conditions at that time will be such as to render withdrawal impracticable.

Whether the spirit of unrest is due to the preparation of certain Cubans who hope to control by a show of force once the United States is out of the island, or whether foreign interests are encouraging plots so as to compel the continuance of American occupancy, is not definitely made clear. The foreign interests, it is well known, dread the restoration of complete home rule in Cuba. They foresee excessive taxation, and burdensome regulations placed upon their enterprises.

The ultimate aim and hope of these foreign and American business interests is to have this government either take over the islands or establish a protectorate which will give the Cubans a certain amount of self-government, but will promptly halt any attempt at maladministration of affairs. It is an open secret that army officers returning from Cuba are bringing back disputing tales.

A high official in the department was asked if preparations were being pushed for the withdrawal of the troops from Cuba on the date set. He declined to express any opinion, but added that the troops might not be embarked if there was any need for them.

None of the officials would acknowledge, nor would they deny that they had received advices that foreigners in Cuba were subscribing to a fund for the purpose of financing a revolution. The revolution, according to these advices, would be timed for about the first of the year. In that case, the American troops, perforce, would be compelled to remain in the island. Pressure would then be brought to bear on Washington to have this government take some definite action toward insuring the future peace of the republic.

The American army is well scattered over the island, and while it consists of only 5,000 troops, it is distributed in such a way that a fair sized body of trained regulars could be mobilized at any point in the island in a few hours. Two battalions of the Twenty-seventh infantry are stationed at Camp Columbia, near Havana, as a reserve force which can be sent to any part of the island where trouble is likely to occur.

Contrary to what has been expected, it seems now that the provincial and municipal elections will not indicate which of the three parties, the Zaylita, Mignolista or the conservative, will be the strongest in the next general presidential elections.

In each town, according to local interests, the parties have combined for the election of a mayor, the Miguel-

The recent discovery at the Rockefeller Institute that Epsom salts is an ideal anesthetic was followed by a more important one.

A new drug, Muco-Solvent, which was thought heretofore to be most valuable in the cure of Diphtheria, has been found an absolutely infallible specific for all forms of Catarrh, and since all affections of the membranous tissues is catarrh in one form or another, Muco-Solvent at once becomes the most vitally important drug in the world.

Already this wonderful drug has come into general use, and today is sold in drug stores all over the United States and Europe. Being perfectly harmless, it is supplied without a prescription and is administered with freedom.

We understand that Dan Wilcox, of this city, has arranged for a supply of this remarkable preparation, and will add his personal guarantee to that of the discoverer of the wonderful drug.

Muco-Solvent cures Tonsillitis, Gripe, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Cold in the Head and all kindred ailments. It prevents the development of nearly all troubles that affect the membranous tissues.

KILLED BAD CHECK MAN

J. H. BELLMAN SHOT ESCAPING FROM DE SOTO, MO., BY OFFICER IN AUTO.

NEGRO DRIVER IS ALSO WOUNDED

Bullets Follow Fugitive's Attempt to Drive Over Cadwallader—Paper Drawn on Chippewa Bank, St. Louis.

De Soto, Mo., July 31.—J. H. Bellman, who, within the last three days passed a number of worthless checks in this city, was shot to death on the highway near Victoria, this county, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning by Marshal Thomas Cadwallader of DeSoto, after a thrilling automobile chase.

Bellman was driving in a buggy toward Hillsboro, where it is presumed he intended to board a train. The checks were drawn on the Chippewa bank of St. Louis.

A negro who was driving the buggy which Bellman was escaping, also was shot and slightly injured. The marshal says the negro was wounded by accident.

Bellman was a stranger. He came here several days ago and stopped at one of the best hotels in the city. He appeared to be prosperous, and readily induced several local merchants to cash checks for him. The paper finally found its way to the German-American bank of DeSoto.

Gus Hamel, Jr., cashier of the local bank, called up the Chippewa bank on the long distance phone this morning and learned that Bellman had no account with that institution.

The marshal was then asked to arrest Bellman, who, it was subsequently found, had left the city in a buggy hired at a livery barn. Marshal Cadwallader and the cashier got into an automobile and went in pursuit. They overtook the buggy three-quarters of a mile west of Victoria. The marshal called for Bellman to halt and the driver put the whip to the horse.

Cadwallader drew his revolver and fired, he says, to frighten them. The negro jumped up in the buggy and was struck in the leg. He sprang from the vehicle and fell beside the road. The marshal jumped from the automobile. Bellman seized the reins and tried to drive the horse over the officer.

Leaping to one side of the road, the marshal evaded the horse and shot at the desperate man. Three bullets entered Bellman's body.

The frightened horse sprang forward, and Bellman, wounded, fell to the road as the horse ran away. Bellman and the negro were placed in the automobile and were taken to Victoria.

Bellman died soon after a physician reached his side. The condition of the negro is regarded as not critical.

The dead man was about 45 years old. He is said to have come here from Canada. A ring with the initials, J. H. B., leads the authorities to believe the name of Bellman was not assumed.

EAGLE ATTACKS A MAN

Knocking Him Down, but a Dog Comes to the Rescue.

Nashville, Ind., July 31.—John Boffing, when walking in the woods near his home at Story, was attacked by an eagle, the bird striking him in the face with its claws, tearing the flesh and knocking him down.

Boffing scrambled to his feet and tried to defend himself with an ax, but the bird renewed the attack so quickly that he was again knocked down.

Blood streamed from his face, partially blinding him, and he was fast losing strength when his dog took part in the battle, distracting the bird's attention.

Boffing then seized a club, and a well-directed blow disabled the eagle, and it was killed with no further difficulty. The eagle measured five feet from tip to tip.

DREW MYSTERY DEEPENS

CORONER'S INQUEST FAILS OF
LIGHT ON TEAL POND
MURDER.

MANY TELL OF HER MOVEMENTS

Mother Identifies Clothing—Death by an Unknown Hand to Be Verdict, Is the Belief of Those Who Know the Facts.

Troy, N. Y., July 31.—How and by whom pretty Hazel Drew was murdered and her body thrown into Teal's pond, is apparently as much of a mystery today, after an investigation by a coroner's jury yesterday as the day her body was lifted from the swamp hole, July 11.

Witnesses by the score told what little they knew of the customs and movements of the girl. State's Attorney O'Brien put each through the most searching examination, which revealed nothing.

The comings and the goings of the young woman from the day she resigned her position in E. R. Carey's home, July 6, until her lifeless body revealed murder, were described by her relatives and closest friends.

The mother of Hazel, Mrs. John Drew, garbed in heavy mourning, identified the clothing in which the girl went to her death. The father, John Drew, haltingly told what he knew of his child's habits and associates.

Minnie Taylor, the aunt of the dead girl, who has been a source of perplexity to District Attorney O'Brien, was sharply cross-examined by him. She smiled pleasantly throughout the ordeal, except for a few moments when she handled the garments of the dead girl. Then she broke down and sobbed. The district attorney pressed her for an answer as to whether Hazel was ever followed or annoyed in the streets by men. She replied that she could not remember any such incidents.

The next witness, Henry E. Kravich, a real estate dealer of Albany, is said to be wealthy and owns a camp in the Grafton mountains, near Teal's pond. Mr. Kravich described with much detail his whereabouts on July 6 and 7. He asserted that he never knew Hazel Drew. Two women witnesses who live near Kravich's camp denied ever having heard screams from that direction, or that young women from there ever appeared for assistance to persons living nearby.

Chris Crape, proprietor of a hotel near Teal's pond, again described the mysterious midnight visit of an automobile to that locality. It was learned, however, that the persons who were there that night have visited the district attorney and given a satisfactory explanation of their actions.

Carrie Weaver, Hazel's chum, did not arrive from the west in time to give her testimony.

The coroner will make public his findings today, which, it is believed, will be an announcement that the girl came to her death at the hands of a person or persons unknown.

Death of Miss Lulu Reese.

C. M. Reese, twenty-five years ago a resident of this city, now living at Mound City, Kas., arrived last night to meet the body of his sister, Miss Lulu Reese, who died from the effects of a surgical operation at Sherman, Texas, Wednesday night, aged 50 years. Burial will be made in this city. The body was expected to arrive this morning, but will not reach here until tonight.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues. Even the untutored Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cure it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and distressing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of unimpeachable testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of catarrhal pelvic drainage, periods, irregularities, prolapsus and other diseases caused by weakness, ulceration of uterus and kindred affections, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extract of native medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle wrapper.

BUILDING REPUTATION

Are the Hagenbeck & Wallace Combined Shows, Which Come Aug. 7.

Other shows depend upon their reputation in the past. The Hagenbeck & Wallace show is building its name. Other shows depend upon some great thriller, some act wonderful in itself, but which appeals only to adults and then occupies the attention only five or ten seconds. The Hagenbeck & Wallace show offers as its big feature twenty acts in which trained animals perform.

The show is doing wonderful business in other cities. The reports which precede it are of a very complimentary nature. It gives a street parade which is said to be the longest and most brilliant ever offered by a tented enterprise. The animals are a part of the parade and the cages will be open.

The horses composed a feature which is being praised everywhere. Four hundred well groomed and well matched dapple grays draw the cages, floats and band wagons in parade and they delight the horse lover. The racers are of undisputed lineage. The steeds attached to the Roman chariots are beauties and the Shetland ponies will delight the children. The famous twenty high school horses are one of the most enjoyable parts of the performance. Hagenbeck & Wallace shows come to Sedalia Friday, August 7.

The trained wild beasts are synonymous with the name of Carl Hagenbeck. He is the recognized emperor of the animal world. Imagine, then, if you can, the vastness and immensity of the Hagenbeck-Wallace shows, with the famous trained wild animal exhibit forming a mere nucleus. There has been no curtailment or abridgement, but splendid enlargement all along the line. Heretofore the world has marveled at these animal performances. New groups and sensations that have been added will cause this same old world to stand astonished and enraptured.

IMPROPER USE OF MAILS

Results in the Arrest of a Man at Fortuna, Missouri.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 31.—William Ridgeway, of Fortuna, Moniteau county, was before United States Commissioner Geisberg yesterday on the charge of using the mails to send obscene matter.

He is a farmer 75 years of age, and the trouble seems to have been the result of a quarrel with one of his neighbors. He was held for the federal grand jury.

DRESDEN ITEMS.

Dresden, Mo., July 28.

Mrs. C. C. Gentry spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Gentry. Dolph Fewel Baldwin, of Lamonte, passed through this place Sunday, on his way to the Queen City.

Clara Williams left Thursday for Smithton to visit friends and relatives.

Miss Lucy Brock and sister, of Lincoln, Neb., are visiting their uncle and aunt, John Church and wife. Ruth Kemp returned home Tuesday, after spending a few weeks at Colorado Springs.

Born, Saturday night, to the wife of W. N. Snow, twin boys. Mother and boys are doing nicely. The stork visited the home of Will Hoch the same night and brought them a little girl.

We are glad to welcome to the community Dr. John Powers, formerly of Warrensburg, who will occupy the office vacated by Dr. D. P. Dyer, who goes to Sedalia Aug. 1. While we are sorry to lose Dr. Dyer, we wish him a hearty God-speed, and are glad to see him succeeded by so promising a young man. Dr. Powers, Ed Church and Sallye Dehney spent Sunday with Miss Lizzie Allison, of South Sedalia.

Mrs. Harry Steele returned to her home in Kansas City Friday after a visit with friends and relatives at this place.

Mrs. Charles Everett, of Sedalia, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Haven.

Mr. O. Hoch and wife, of Kansas City, spent Sunday with their brother, Mr. Will Hoch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Higgins, of Houstonia, were visiting relatives here Sunday.

A party consisting of Dr. D. P. Dyer, Mr. Wheaton, Miss Beulah Dyer, of Windsor, Miss Ruth Kemp and Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Luckett spent Thursday and Thursday night on the banks of the creek fishing. They made a good catch, consisting of crawfish, frogs, croppie, black bass, etc. They spent a splendid time, and all agree that the doctor is as good a cook as a physician, which is saying a great deal for his ability as a culinary artist.

IONIA ITEMS.

Ionia, Mo., July 29.

This vicinity needs a good rain. Orville Van Wey visited at Eldon, his old home, last Sunday and Monday.

George Ferguson is in St. Louis, to which place he accompanied twenty-one fat steers of his own feeding.

P. D. Guenther, wife and little daughter visited at the home of Henry Brockman from last Saturday until today. Mr. Guenther is editor of the Miller County News.

Arthur Holloway, candidate for treasurer of Benton county, was in our section yesterday, talking very nicely to the boys.

P. R. Schnabel, Ionia's regular shipper, sent to the St. Louis market, on Monday, a car load of lambs and a car of hogs.

Dr. J. R. Lee, dentist, is in our village this week, on his regular professional visit. The doctor has been making regular visits to our town for more than two years and has established a good practice.

George V. Francis is hauling lumber to use in the erection of a neat farm cottage about two miles north-east of here. We notice that George, in speaking about the building of this house, always says "we." Guess he has a partner.

Avery Slagle, who has been the railroad agent here for the past three years, has resigned his position and left the road. He has gone to Texas, looking for a location. Will perhaps try mercantile pursuits. A Mr. N. B. Stockton, formerly of Belle, Mo., but late of Pleasant Hill, is in charge of the railroad office since the resignation of Mr. Slagle.

The soda pop and ice cream parlors, property of Howe Bros., but under the management of Uncle Frank Beaman, today changed hands, the present owners being Sumter Ducher & Co. Mr. Ducher is a bright looking young man and the people of Ionia welcome him to their midst.

GALLERIES WENT WILD

When Sheppard Mentioned Bryan's Name in Chicago.

Fort Scott, Kas., July 31.—Attorney J. I. Sheppard, who created a furore at the Hearst convention in Chicago by offering the name of W. J. Bryan as nominee of the Independence party, arrived home at 2 o'clock last afternoon.

Mr. Sheppard will prepare a detailed statement for the Associated Press today regarding the episode. Reports that Mr. Sheppard did not deliver his speech are denied in toto by Mr. Sheppard, who spoke for forty-five minutes.

At the mention of Bryan's name the galleries went wild and this incensed the delegations which were packed by ruffians.

Mr. Sheppard bears no marks as a result of the attack. His statement will indeed be a very interesting document.

CROW HOME FROM VACATION

Says He Is Out of Touch With the Political Situation.

St. Louis, Mo., July 31.—Former Attorney General E. C. Crow has just returned from an extended vacation with his family in California. General Crow and his son spent much time fishing and can tell some real "fish yarns."

"I am less in touch with the Missouri political situation that I have been for years," General Crow said at the Southern Hotel today.

"I have got to study up on the situation to even find out how to vote myself," he said.

MANSION OR SCHOOLS

SEDALIA MAN WRITES POETIC REPLY TO THE DAVE BALL RHYME.

THE MANSION ON THE HILL

Says That It Is Not the Little Red School House That Interests the Pike County Man, but the Governor's Residence.

(On Wednesday, July 22, the Democrat-Sentinel published two poems, one "The Little Red School House on the Hill" and the other an answer to it, entitled "The Big Red Mansion on the Hill." There has been so great a demand for copies of the issue that they are entirely exhausted, and by request the two poems are republished today.

Originally it was stated that the author of the latter production was the "poet laureate of the Sedalia bar," and it is proper now to say that by that designation was meant Hon. William D. Steele.)

The Little Red School House on the Hill.

August the Fourth when the days are long,
I'll cast my vote, and I'll cast it strong.
Thinking then with right good will
Of the little red school house on the hill.

Cowherd and Hawes, I'm inclined
To think they're of the college kind.
And in my heart, I know it's true—
Little red school house for me and you.

Universities also we'll treat fair,
Give them all that we can spare;
If in August we get our will,
Comes first the school house on the hill.

Cowherd and Wallace, take them all;
I shall vote for David Ball.
He's the man who says he will Stand for the school house on the hill.

"Dave" is opposed to education
Or to gaining further knowledge,
And is fighting Mr. Cowherd
Because he went to college.

Now, if the people all should think
That "Dave's" will should rule,
And the governor of Missouri
Should really be a fool.

Then that we may give them
Exactly what they like,
Let's withdraw our handsome "Dave"
And run his brother Ike.

For Isaac was a "Reuben,"
And is a "Reuben" still,
And he never saw a college
Nor "The School House on the Hill."

If you want to take a backward step
And nothing else will do,
Then, why not "kill a nigger
And burn a school house, too."

Now, is "Dave" opposed to Bryan?
And to this he should acknowledge,
For Bryan is in favor
Of "The Electoral College."

Do you voters think that this is right,
Thus to have our state maligned,
And in matters educational
To suck the "tit" behind.

What "Dave" has his peepers on
And 'till election day he will,
Is not "The Little School House"
But the "Mansion on the Hill."

But the mansion at the capital
Is surely Cowherd's prize,
And the only mansion left for "Dave"
Is the "Mansion in the Skies."

WAS WOMAN IN THE CASE

WHEN GEO. KARNS SHOT JOE TAYLOR, WHERE WAS WIFE OF THE FORMER?

HER STORY SAID TO BE VERY WEAK

Mrs. Karns Returned and Went Direct to See the Body of Taylor. But Did Not Go Near Her Husband in Jail.

The killing of Joseph Taylor, an M. K. & T. machinist, by George Karns, another M. K. & T. machinist, at Parsons, Kas., Wednesday afternoon, was written of as follows in Thursday's Parsons Sun:

Where was Mrs. George Karns yesterday when she heard of the murder of Joe Taylor?

Mrs. Karns says that she was in Oklahoma City. Karns in his statement published yesterday in the Sun said that he got Mrs. Karns a pass to Oklahoma City on July 6. Mrs. Karns arrived in Parsons last night at 7:15, at least she was here shortly after that time, and said she came from Oklahoma City after receiving a message that her husband had killed Joe Taylor. Taylor died at 9:20 yesterday morning. The train on which Mrs. Taylor said she arrived from Oklahoma City leaves that city at 10:20 a. m. Mrs. Karns' story is true she moved quicker than any other woman ever moved when getting ready to catch a train.

Mrs. Karns wasn't in Oklahoma City yesterday. She never received a telephone message at that place telling of the tragedy at that little home on North Twenty-sixth street. She was nearer to Parsons than that, and she had several hours after hearing of the murder of Taylor before starting to the scene of the tragedy. Taylor knew where she was. Karns didn't know where his wife was when he shot Taylor.

Thought She Was 500 Miles Away.

When told that his wife was in town last night, Karns said: "Why, that can't be possible. Joe told me yesterday that she wasn't within 500 miles of Parsons."

This statement of Karns shows that there was some controversy between Taylor and Karns yesterday regarding the wife of the latter before the outraged husband, taunted by the lover of his wife, emptied his revolver into his body. He had an express money order in his pocket then to send to Bell Karns.

The first person that Belle Karns asked to see last night when she arrived in Parsons was not the husband in jail for love of her, but the man whose life had been shot out by her husband. She went direct to the undertaker's, where she stood in the presence of the man who had paid the penalty that the world has ever exacted from him who violates the unwritten law. Standing in the presence of the dead man, she said, pointing to him:

"Many and many times that man there has saved my life. He was the only protector I had."

When asked later what she meant by that she said that when her husband was drinking he was cruel to her, and Joe protected her. This, then, and the paltry debt of $48.40 was the cause of the tragedy at that little home on North Twenty-sixth street, and as the evidence comes to light there will be more such evidence as this.

No Inquest Was Held.

It was not necessary to hold an inquest over the body of Joe Taylor to find out how he came to his death. George Karns don't deny killing him. He even tells how he shot him and the events that led up to the tragedy. But he does not tell it all. He is still attempting to shield the name and reputation of the woman who bears his name and whom he still loves. He hides the real motive for the crime behind that of a mercenary motive, and it may be that rather than tell the true story of the past two years since Joe Taylor entered his home he will pay the full penalty of his act, and by so doing shield his wife.

The different actors in this tragedy are slowly coming together, and the body of Joe Taylor will be shipped to Raton, New Mexico, where his father and mother will give it burial. Mrs. Karns arrived from somewhere last night. Her husband is still in jail here and will have his preliminary hearing August 7. A cousin of George Karns arrived last night from Oswego, and with him was Frank Prady, who will conduct his defense. This cousin is J. H. Karns, one of the most highly respected citizens of Oswego. He is vice president and manager of the Oswego Milling company and president of the Oswego Ice company. He is helping to untangle the affairs of his cousin. George Karns is still in jail here and will remain here until his affairs are straitened.

Under the guard of an officer he went to his home today, where yesterday the tragedy occurred, and made disposition of the furniture.

Something of the Actors.

Joe Taylor, the man who had been killed by George Karns, had been married and was divorced from his wife. Some say that she is now in Wichita. Mrs. Karns admits that Taylor was divorced, but says she does not know where his wife is now. Mrs. Karns also spoke of her own marital troubles. She says she secured a divorce from her husband last August. She says it was granted on the grounds of desertion and non-support. Yet she says that Karns gave her $400 after the divorce and the household furniture. While the divorce was pending Taylor was in Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Karns went to Oklahoma City soon after the divorce was granted. Karns says that he did not see Taylor from July of last year until the following November. It was between these times that Mrs. Karns secured her divorce, which was not contested by Karns. Then he heard from him. He wrote from Fort Worth, where Mrs. Karns had gone with her sister from Oklahoma City after receiving the divorce.

The Home of the Karns.

No one could look at the furnishings in the Karns home this morning and believe that the allegations made by Mrs. Karns in her divorce petition that he did not support her were true. The home is not a large one, but there is not a home in Parsons more cosy or furnished in better manner or with better taste. The furniture is all new and all paid for and it is a home in which any woman could be happy with a husband she loved and through which the lecherous trail of the serpent had not been made. It is such a home as a lover would provide for his bride, and indeed Mrs. Karns was little removed from the bride, for after her divorce last August she was married to her husband again last November, and it was shortly after this that they came here and her husband furnished this home for her.

When Karns secured a railroad pass for his wife to Oklahoma City it was a round trip pass, and yet Mrs. Karns stated this morning that she had left her husband again and had no intention to return to him. She said that when she heard of the murder of Joe Taylor she was in a rooming house in Oklahoma City and looking for work. She said she received a message that Joe Taylor had been killed by her husband, but she

A Few of the Side Lights.

These are just a few of the things that are coming to light since George Karns yesterday gave himself up and in low tones and with a scared face told the story of the tragedy. He avoids as much as possible talking about it, and there is always the apparent desire to shield his wife, even at his own expense. He knows that his wife is in town, but whether or not he knows that she visited the morgue and spoke tender words of the memory of the man who wrecked his home, he makes no complaint. Neither does he complain that the dead body of Taylor has received that attention from his wife which she has denied to him in his prison cell, where he awaits the end, whatever that may be. Karns makes no attempt to evade the result of his act, and it would not require steel bars to keep him here to see it through to the end. But what his plea will be no one knows, unless it is his lawyer. It can hardly be self-defense, for his victim was unarmed and he continued to shoot after Taylor had commenced his flight from the house, and followed him across the street and into the home of a neighbor, where in abject terror his victim pleaded for mercy. For Karns to tell in court the story told yesterday of a quarrel over a paltry debt would seal his fate, and he seems to have determined to take advantage of the unwritten law, and only time can tell what the result will be.

HOLD FAMILY REUNIONS

THE SEASON IS NOW ON IN EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA WITH A VENGEANCE.

SOME OF THEM ARE INCORPORATED

One of the Largest is the Hoover Family Association. Which Meets Once Each Year in Honor of Late Judge Hoover.

Philadelphia, July 31.—The family reunion season in Eastern Pennsylvania is now on and scores of family organizations, some of them duly incorporated and with thousands of members in all parts of the country, have held or will soon hold a big gathering in the vicinity of Philadelphia. Dozens of families trace their origin to early settlers in Pennsylvania and no other state in the Union can boast of such gatherings of the clan.

One of the largest of these bodies is the Hoover Family association, which has hundreds of members, who for many years have met annually to pay their respects to the venerable former Judge Hiram G. Hoover, usually known as "Grandpa" Hoover, the chieftain of the clan.

Ranking among the largest associations in the state is the Baer Family association, of which George F. Baer, president of the Reading railway system, is a member. The history of this family is traced back 265 years, to the arrival of the first Baers in this country. The annual reunion is usually held in Kutztown park, near Reading, early in August.

Another large family is that of the Bergey Family association—the descendants of John Ulrich Bergey, a German pioneer, who came to the United States about 1717, and settled in Montgomery county. The Bergey clan has since that time numbered more than 5,000 people, of whom about 2,000 are now living and are members of the Bergey Family association. Of German ancestry, the members of the Bergey family are, almost to a unit, careful, thrifty, intelligent people.

When the Cehmans get together at Perkaskie park each year, the widely scattered branches of that clan are best shown when it is known that the reunion has regular attendants each year from Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Virginia, and that members in far off Switzerland always send letters or cable messages to be read to the other members of the family.

The Carroll Family association; the Williams Family association, which met in Hathoro; the Rosenberger family, the Spare Family association, with most members living in Montgomery and Chester counties; the Moyer Family association, the association composed of descendants of Rev. William Thomas, a prominent Welsh minister who lived in Bucks county after coming to this country in 1822; the Gottschall Family association, one which traces its ancestry to a time preceding 1700; the De Prefontaine Family association, whose ancestry goes back to the time of the Huguenots; the Scheier Family association—all these and perhaps half a score of others—had their origin in Eastern Pennsylvania and annually add to the joyousness of the summer reunion season.

DR. HILL IS TO SPEAK

At International Congress of Political Science.

Berlin, July 31.—Some of the foremost diplomats, economists and historians of the world are gathering in Berlin this week to take part in the sessions next month of the International Congress of Political Science.

Dr. David Jayne Hill, the American ambassador, has been given a place of honor on the program and will speak on "The Ethical Aspect of the Historian." The German intellectual world has given a glad welcome to Dr. Hill, and he will be given an ovation when he appears before the savants at the congress.

The German press is printing eulogistic reviews of Dr. Hill's "History of Diplomacy in the International Development of Europe," the critics declaring that the first two volumes of the work, which already have appeared, justify the inclusion of Dr. Hill among the profoundest scholars contemporary America has produced.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the news papers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. TO BE A GREAT FESTIVAL

IT WILL BEGIN TOMORROW AND CONTINUE UNTIL SUNDAY.

THE INDULGENCE OF PORTIUNCULA

Will Be Celebrated Throughout the World by Members and Devotees of Three Orders Instituted by St. Francis.

New York, July 31.—Beginning tomorrow and continuing until sunset of Sunday, the indulgence of Portiuncula, the greatest of all festivals of purely Franciscan origin, will be celebrated throughout the world by the members and devotees of the three orders instituted by the great St. Francis. Confessions in preparation for the reception of holy communion will be heard this afternoon and evening and tomorrow morning by the Franciscan fathers everywhere.

The festival is entirely different from other Catholic observances, it being celebrated solely on account of the indulgence. Portiuncula is neither a saint nor a mystery, but the name of a very small church near Assisi, in Italy, which although very small, has become famous throughout the world by means of the memorable and singular indulgence which St. Francis gained for this little chapel.

The great doctor of the church, St. Bonaventura, relates that in the month of September, in the year 1221, St. Francis had a vision in the little chapel of Santa Maria, of the angels, commonly called Portiuncula. Christ, accompanied by his holy mother, and a multitude of angels appeared at the altar, encouraging him with these words: "That he might ask a favor for the salvation of souls."

The saint, trusting in the intercession of the most holy mother with confidence, thus addressed the Lord, saying: "I, a poor sinner, ask of the Divine Majesty this favor for the Christian people, that all who having sincerely confessed, devoutly visit this church, may obtain general indulgence and full remission of all their sins." And the Lord remained silent at this petition, to indicate, it seems, that the saint had asked something extraordinary.

St. Francis had recourse to the intercession of his mother, the blessed Virgin Mary, and it was with her powerful assistance that he obtained the granting of his petition, with the injunction to repair to the vicar of Christ, Honorius III, who was then sovereign pontiff, and to ask this indulgence at his hands in the name of the Lord.

This St. Francis did, but it was not until Aug. 1, 1223, that this was granted. Since that time thousands of pilgrims have visited this little chapel every year on the 1st of August. On these occasions every confessor in the neighborhood was engaged night and day administering the sacrament of penance to contrite sinners.

As the little church is not able to hold even a hundred people, the visitors walk in endless procession, praying and singing. They enter at a door below and leave at a side door at the upper end. This procession commences with vespers on the first of August, and continues all through the night, without interruption, until sunset of the following day.

At present the cupola of a magnificent dome vaults above the little chapel of Portiuncula, yet on the day of the famous indulgence even the large dome is too small for the immense number of pilgrims.

For more than 200 years this indulgence could not be gained in any other church than the chapel of Portiuncula, not even by Franciscans. Pope Gregory XV on July 4, 1622, extended the indulgence to all churches of the three orders of St. Francis. Hence it is that all the faithful of the secular or religious state may gain this indulgence by visiting a Franciscan church.

To secure this great grace it is necessary to make a contrite confession and receive holy communion either on the day of Portiuncula or the day previous. This latter may be done in any church. The third condition is to visit devoutly some privileged church within the time appointed for the gaining of this indulgence. Finally, it is necessary to say a short prayer for the intention of the holy father, by which is meant the welfare of Christendom, the ex-

tipitation of heresies and union among Christian princes.

In many cities where Franciscan churches are located these sacred edifices are crowded from the minute at which the devotions begin until the very last minute at which the indulgence may be gained. This is true especially in New York, San Francisco, Chicago, St. Louis and other large cities, where thousands upon thousands of pious Catholics from all parts of these cities visit these privileged churches to secure this grace. The gaining of the indulgence is not confined to the members of a Franciscan parish, but every Catholic so desiring may, if so inclined and carry out the requirements necessary, gain the indulgence.

The indulgence may be gained as often as the visitor desires, but they must leave the church, and, returning again, recite a short prayer. The first indulgence is applicable to the devotee, but the remainder must be applied to the poor souls in purgatory.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

OPERATORS ON ROCK ISLAND RAILWAY NOT SATISFIED WITH CONDITIONS.

CAB, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

To prevent a threatened strike of telegraphers employed by the Rock Island railroad, Charles P. Neill, United States labor commissioner, yesterday went into conference with President Perham and other officials of the Railway Telegraphers' union in Chicago.

The unions allege that the railroad has persistently ignored the law passed by congress last spring, which provided that no railroad operator employed in interstate business can be kept at work for more than nine successive hours.

The telegraphers have complained to the federal authorities, declaring they will strike unless present conditions are corrected.

Neill will confer with the Commercial Telegraphers' union officials regarding general complaints made against the telegraph companies.

Voted in Favor of a Strike.

Seranton, Pa., July 31.—Grand Master Hawley, of the Switchmen's union, announced last night that 80 per cent of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad men have voted for a strike, and that the grievance committee is now awaiting a reply from President Truesdale to a letter sent requesting a conference with the view of effecting a settlement before the committee takes up the question of ordering the men out.

Mr. Hawley stated that the Lackawanna switchmen have no affiliation with any federation except the American Federation of Labor. The story of a probable sympathetic strike on six roads is not regarded seriously by the local switchmen.

Speaking of the controversy over the discharge of certain switchmen, Grand Master Hawley in a statement given out last night says that "prejudice seems to have been the prevailing faculty which prompted the subordinate officials in their actions and the statement is framed in such a way as to mislead the general superintendent, and as a result he has sustained the subordinate officials."

Train Auditor Is Acquitted.

At the hearing of Train Auditor Caperton, of the M. K. & T., at Vineta, Wednesday on the charge of murder in the first degree, he was discharged, after the witnesses of the state had been heard. The witnesses for the defense were not put on the stand. There was simply nothing on which to base the charge.

Mr. Caperton was arrested, he having been indicted on the charge of murdering Wm. Winfrey at Blue Jacket, on the night of July 19th. Winfrey was struck by Katy passenger train No. 1 and killed.

Attacked by Strikers.

W. W. Curran, a non-union carpenter, who has been working at the Missouri Pacific shops at Fort Scott since the strike began, went to town Wednesday evening with a statement that he had been attacked by a crowd of strikers at the Second street bridge and had been roughly treated. There exists an intensity in the differences between the strikers and the non-union men who are employed in the Missouri Pacific shops in Fort Scott, that has broken out a time or two in incidents of a character similar to that of Wednesday night.

Rock Island Train Here.

A wreck on the Rock Island railway near Chilhowee, Mo., necessitated the detouring of a passenger train of that road over the M. K. & T. and Missouri Pacific this morning.

The train was delivered to the M. K. & T. at Windsor and was carried to this city, piloted by C. S. Cummings.

From Sedalia the train went to Pleasant Hill via the Missouri Pacific, thence over the company's own tracks.

Got a Job at the Shops.

Earl Castle, comedian, musician, bugler, salesman and general utility man, has secured a position with the "Old Reliable" Missouri Pacific in the capacity of oiler, and will report for work at the new shops tomorrow morning, hence the happiness of a number of well known young men of this city, who labored zealously in Castle's behalf and succeeded in landing him a position.

Will Not Lose His One Eye.

Warren Stevens, an M. K. & T. shopman, who sustained a painful injury to his left eye while at work at the shops last Monday, is getting along very nicely, under the care of the M. K. & T. oculist department. The patient's sight is gradually resuming normal conditions, and today he was able to tell the time of day by glancing at a watch. Mr. Stevens' right eye is of glass.

Train Makes Special Stop.

W. E. Stodgell, an M. K. & T. coach carpenter, will leave at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon for Syracuse, called there by the illness of his father, W. A. Stodgell who is at the point of death.

Missouri Pacific train No. 8 will make a special stop for Mr. Stodgell's convenience.

Ran in Two Sections.

For the first time in the history of the "Old Reliable," Missouri Pacific train No. 37, commonly known as "Hi Lewis' special," was run in two sections today, the second section being a detoured Rock Island train.

It left Sedalia for Pleasant Hill at 7:35 a. m. Conductor Rizer acted as Pilot, with Engineer Holland in the cab.

Old-Time Katy Engineers.

On August 8, next, W. H. Newkirk, an M. K. & T. engineer, will have served the company in that capacity exactly twenty-seven years.

On the following day James Roach will have put in a like number of years, and on August 10, J. L. Russell will have completed twenty-seven years' service as engineer on the M. K. & T.

Missouri Pacific Vacancies.

A vacancy for one conductor and two brakemen exists on the Independence "pusher" of the Missouri Pacific, and applications for the places must be filed not later than Aug. 7. The hours for working are from 8 p. m. to 6 a. m.

Will Loos Get a Position.

A position for a young stenographer in the office of Roadmaster A. Frakes, at the M. K. & T. offices in this city, was filled this morning by the selection of Will Loos, a student at Hill's Business college, who enters upon his duties tomorrow morning.

A Missouri Pacific Bulletin.

An official bulletin issued by the Missouri Pacific trainmaster today forbids trainmen from carrying empty flat cars near the engine of a train. Instead, such cars are to be carried near the caboose.

Mrs. Bowser Got the Best of Mr. Bowser This Time.

Kittanning, Pa., July 31.—Mr. Bowser ran foul of Mrs. Bowser again yesterday, and this time the lady got all the best of it. Last evening Mr. Bowser, smelling a whole lot like a drug store and walking uncertainly, slid up to the counter of the county paper here and laid down the following local for two insertions. Also the cash for same:

"Last week I advertised that my wife had left my bed and board. This was only imaginary. My wife was on a visit to neighbors, and when I returned home I imagined she had left me, and, without any cause, has-tened to advertise that she had gone. I do this now to assure the public that there was no blame on my wife—that it was all mine.—Harrison Bowser"

FINDS MOTHER IN DREAM

Girl's Revelation Is Followed by Reunion With Her Family.

Nashville, Ill., July 31.—A most remarkable story of a revelation in a dream, through which Miss Irene Thresher was reunited with her mother after a separation of 13 years, came to light here yesterday.

The girl was born near Louisville, Ky., but her parents separated when she was 4 years old. She was sent to the Christian Orphans' home and later out into the world to drift for herself.

The longing to see her mother grew on her as she became older, but all her efforts to locate that relative were futile, until in a dream her mother appeared to her as living in Griggsville, Ill. Correspondence followed, and yesterday her brother, George Thresher, called and took his sister home.
